The MISSION AT THE CROSS

PRODUCED & EDITED BY THE MIGHTY MEN OF THE MISSION

"THANKFUL"

On May 31st I got a call at 1:30 am that my momma had passed away.

I was broken—dealing with losing my momma, trying to come up with money for a funeral and trying to handle it on my own—I felt like because it was my Momma, it was my burden. But, then my HF Brother called and asked how we were handling the funeral cost. I told him I was borrowing money to come up with some of it and hoping the funeral home would work with us on the rest of the balance. He called me back in less than 5 hours and said, "Rest easy, Brother, the funeral is 100% paid for."

I was humbled by the love of Jesus. Almost 50 people said they wanted to share the burden of paying for Momma's funeral. I didn't think I knew 50 people!

This has been a tough journey. I always knew I could call momma if I had a bad day or if I was feeling the heaviness of life. But, the love of Jesus that people have shown has added to my testimony. Now, when someone says they're sorry for my loss, I say, "Thank you," and then I brag on Jesus!

I will continue to tell everyone what Jesus has done through Mission At The Cross, Hellfighter Nation, Journey Church, family and friends. I can't express how much I love you all!

My heart is broken, but my Faith is strengthened and encouraged through the love of Jesus.

Thank you!
HF Patrick
